

Win on Wednesday

Salute to a star thoroughbred

THE Story of Black Caviar is a celebration of Australia's greatest racehorse. Possessing a unique combination of brilliance, perfect motion and an aura of invincibility, Black Caviar has taken the racing world by storm. With every race and with every powerful yet graceful showing, her legend only continues to grow.

She is the quickest horse in Australian racing and is recognised throughout the world as the fastest thoroughbred on the planet. Racing, and indeed most elite sports, have never seen her like before. This book includes stories about her trainer, owners and strappers, her pedigree and how she overcame a fear of barriers and a spate of career-threatening injuries, making this the must-have Black Caviar bible.

To win a copy, send this week's masthead to Black Caviar competition.

One for fans of the old Doctor

DOCTOR Who – The Ambassadors of Death (the Jon Pertwee years 1970-74), shows something has gone seriously wrong with Mars Probe 7.

With no contact from the astronauts since the rocket started its return journey from Mars, Space Control is now extremely worried about the fate of the crew.

A rescue mission recovers something – but whatever it is, it certainly isn't human.

To find out what has happened to the astronauts, the Doctor must head into space with the Tardis.

To win this DVD, send this week's masthead to Dr Who competition.

The best of the British coastline

ALL the elements of Britain's spectacular and endlessly varied coastline are celebrated in this fascinating six-part documentary series. Led by Nicholas Crane, Coast's team of presenters – all experts in their respective fields – uncover an extraordinarily rich mix of stories, archaeology, history, wildlife, geography and human interest. The team probes the middle of the tides, goes island hopping, discovers gateways to adventure, lives life beyond the edge and reveals the secret life of beaches.

To win this DVD, send this week's masthead to Coast 7 competition.

Your home will be a calm, tranquil haven

THE Queensland Times has teamed with the global home fragrance brand Yankee Candle to give away two beautifully fragranced White Gardenia Housewarmer candles. The White Gardenia fragrance is a delicate and charming bouquet of white flowers with notes of ylang ylang, lily of the valley and jasmine.

Now available in Australia at independent retailers nationwide, the Yankee Candle Collection is the perfect excuse to spoil and pamper yourself this summer. Made with a blend of enhanced natural extracts and essential oils, you can't help but feel relaxed with these soothing fragrances around you.

Whatever your taste, the Yankee Candle Collection will fade away those worries and promote a sense of calm and tranquility.

Visit yankee.net.au or call 1800 YANKEE to find your nearest independent stockist. You can keep up to date with new fragrances and updates by following Yankee Candle on Facebook.

To win a candle, send this week's masthead to Yankee Candle competition.

Rosehip oil for a younger skin

ROSE-Hip Vital, the rosehip specialists, launch into the beauty industry with their Australian Certified organic cold pressed rosehip oil.

Rosehip oil contains naturally occurring bioflavonoids which act as potent anti-oxidants, helping reduce free radical damage in the skin, fine lines and wrinkles. The essential fatty acids (Omega 3, 6 and 9) in the oil help to keep skin hydrated, moisturised and younger looking.

Rose-Hip Vital rosehip oil is rich in naturally-occurring vitamins, antioxidants and essential fatty acids.

It is 100% pure, natural and Australian certified organic.

To win a bottle, send this week's masthead to Rose-Hip Vital competition.

Love blossoms in the garden

JAMES Nealy is haunted by irrational fears and inescapable compulsions.

As a successful software developer, he's got a plan to finally conquer the noise in his mind and to confront his darkest fears. He is going to build something beautiful: a garden.

And in order to do so he needs Tilly Silverberg; he knows she holds the key... even if she doesn't agree.

After her husband's death, gardening became Tilly's livelihood and her salvation. Her thriving North Carolina business and her young son, Isaac, are the excuses she uses to hide from the world. When oddly attractive, incredibly tenacious James arrives on her doorstep demanding to become her new client, her answer is a flat no. When a family emergency lures Tilly back to England, she's glad to retreat to the comfort of her childhood village that has always stayed obligingly the same. And then James re-appears.

As Tilly agrees to build a garden with him, something begins to blossom between them – despite all the reasons against it.

To win a copy, send this week's masthead to The Unfinished Garden competition.

Prevent accidents with a barbecue safety gauge

WIN one of three Black and Stone Gas Safety Gauges. Before you ignite the switch, it's worth making sure the family gas barbecue is safe and ready to use.

One simple safety measure that is easy to use and cost effective is the Black and Stone Gas Safety Gauge. Designed in Australia, it is an all-in-one safety device that simply screws onto the cylinder. It automatically shuts off the gas should a major leak occur. The Gas Safety Gauge can also be used to assist in detecting leaks, through a simple checking procedure.

An additional feature is that it also monitors how much gas is in the cylinder via an easy-to-read colour code, so you can monitor how much gas is available and arrange for a refill – handy when entertaining guests.

Available from leading hardware and barbecue retailers, the Black and Stone Gas Safety Gauge is priced at $34.95. Black and Stone is an Australian-owned company committed to producing a range of high quality and affordable appliances and cooking accessories.

For further information call 1300 089 001, or log on to the Black and Stone website at blackandstone.com.au.

To win a gauge, send this week's masthead to Black and Stone competition.

Kransky Sisters back on the road

MOURNE, Eve and Dawn Kransky, three endearing spinsters from Esk in Queensland, are packing up their old Morris to hit the road again with a brand new show.

The Sisters will bring stories and homespun renditions of the popular songs they've heard on their wireless, with tuba, musical-saw, guitar, keyboard, saucerpan and toilet brush ...

Book to see this multi-award winning trio at the Ipswich Civic Centre on Thursday November 1 by phoning 3810 6100 or online at ipswichciviccentre.com.au.

Prices: Adults $32.00, Concession/Student $29.50.

To win a double pass, send this week's masthead to The Kransky Sisters competition.

SAKitToMe baby, with bags of fun

THESE SAKitToMe bags are pretty awesome – they can hold up to 10kg (approximately 2-3 full plastic grocery bags), are water resistant and roll into a tiny pouch that can clip to your keys, bag, keep in your glovebox etc.

The bags are 100% polyester, which makes them durable, strong and reusable and come in a huge range of patterns and colours (including a fun kids range) suitable for any eco-wise individual.

Visit envirotrend.com.au for more information.

To win a bag, send this week's masthead to Envirotrend competition.

WINNERS

Parissa: Carly Knight, Churchill (Winner will be contacted when prize is ready for collection). Simply Too Good To Be True: Doreen Andersen, North Ipswich; L Innes, Newtown; Oriel Brown, Brassall. PartyLite: C Peters, Booval. Top Gear: Sandra Vogler, North Ipswich; Elaine Fogarty, Raceview. Upstairs Downstairs: M Newton, Bundamba; David Stephenson, Leichhardt. A South American Journey: M Butt, Leichhardt; Graham Jeffrey, West Ipswich. Bedpan Blues: Dawn Whelband, Brassall; Nicola James, Harrisville; Lyn McGrath, Flinders View; Colleen Reinke, Rosewood; Mrs M Sandford, Bundamba; J Bennett, Leichhardt. Goodbye Lullaby: N M Laffin, Raceview; Colleen Hardie, Raceview; Suzanne Brims, Walloon; D Greer, Tivoli. Reef: Sandy McAllan, Raceview; Mrs M Murphy, Mt Walker; Irene Bould, Ipswich; Lyn Griffiths, Raceview

Win on Wednesday entries should be posted to the QT, PO Box 260, Ipswich, 4305 or drop them in to our office at 260 Brisbane Street, West Ipswich. Entries close noon on Tuesday.