Reserve backpack folds in pocket

YOU never seem to have enough bags when you go travelling.

So wouldn't it be great if you could carry an extra bag in your pocket or hand-luggage that weighed a few grams empty, but could carry up to 8kg when in use?

The PAKItToMe Backpack is a lightweight yet sturdy backpack that can be whipped out to carry those extra souvenirs or used more permanently as part of your luggage ensemble.

HANDY – PAKItToMe Backpack can be folded into your pocket.

Use it for the gym, day-trips, sports, child care, a sleepover, or for work.

It's perfect for carrying a towel, light raincoat, snacks and a water bottle when you go bushwalking.

The folded size is no bigger than a snack-size packet of chips. It folds out to a generously-sized backpack with adjustable straps, two side pockets and pocket at the front with a key-chain.

It is also big enough to hold a laptop or A4 folder.

PAKItToMe Backpack comes in a variety of prints, $15.99 at www.envirotrend.com.au
